LAND AT CASTLE EXCHANGE, GEORGE STREET/OLD LENTON STREET*An Archaeological Desk-based Assessment for Land at Castle Exchange, George Street/Old Lenton Street, Nottingham*

Gnanaratnam, A Leicester : University of Leicester Archaeological Services, 2003, 17pp, figs, tabs, refs

Work undertaken by: University of Leicester Archaeological Services

An archaeological assessment was carried out on the proposed development site and was identified as being located on the line of the Saxon Burh defences. Previous sightings of pottery kilns nearby and possibly one on the site, together with previous observations of caves, indicated a high potential for archaeology. [Au(abr)]

LAND AT HUNTINGDON STREET*An Archaeological Desk-based Assessment for Land at Huntingdon Street, Nottingham*

George, S Leicester : University of Leicester Archaeological Services, 2003, 12pp, figs, tabs, refs

Work undertaken by: University of Leicester Archaeological Services

An archaeological assessment was carried out on the proposed development site. The assessment revealed that the site lay outside the Saxon, medieval and Civil War period settlements. However, the Saxon cemetery identified to the east of the site indicated potential for archaeology. [Au(abr)]

An archaeological assessment was carried out on the site. The assessment identified that it was located next to the Scheduled Monument of the remains of the Church of Lenton Cluinaic Priory and was the probable location of many of the associated Priory buildings. The potential for archaeology prior to the medieval period was considered low. Some of the standing structures on the site were identified as having historical potential. [Au(abr)]
