

South West
POOLEPoole

1/543 (B.73.L005)

SZ 00909030
BH15 1BWTHE OLD HARRY PUBLIC HOUSE, 88 HIGH STREET, POOLEThe Old Harry Public House, 88 High Street, Poole*

Valentin, J Chicklade : AC archaeology, 2003, 8pp, colour pls, figs, refs

Work undertaken by: AC archaeology

The Old Harry lay on top of a previous development, namely the London Hotel, which was built in the 1780s. Prior to this the precise use of the site was unclear. The presence of a building on the 1634 map suggested there was some archaeological potential, however, it was likely to have been destroyed through the subsequent developments. [Au(adp)]

Archaeological periods represented: PM