50-54 SWAN STREET, TORQUAY

50-54 Swan Street, Torquay. Archaeological Assessment

Hawkes, J Chicklade : AC archaeology, 2003, 28pp, colour pls, figs, refs

Work undertaken by: AC archaeology

The surviving buildings were almost certainly part of the original brewery, later used as warehousing and commercial premises. It was impossible to say whether the site lay within the medieval settlement. Damage to archaeological deposits was likely to have already been disturbed due to the 19th century developments. HARVEST MOON PUBLIC HOUSE, GRANGE ROAD, GOODRINGTON

Archaeological Assesement of the Site of The Harvest Moon Public House, Grange Road, Goodrington, Paignton

Exeter Archaeology Exeter : Exeter Archaeology, 2003, 13pp, figs, refs

Work undertaken by: Exeter Archaeology

The assessment revealed that there has been extensive terracing on the site and along with construction of a post-medieval farm and public house, it is unlikely that any archaeological deposits would survive, except for on the north-east side of the site. [AIP]

LAND ADJACENT TO 21 MILTON STREET, HIGHER BRIXHAM, TORBAY

Archaeological Assessment of Land Adjacent to 21 Milton Street, Higher Brixham

Exeter Archaeology Exeter : Exeter Archaeology, 2003, 10pp, figs, refs

Work undertaken by: Exeter Archaeology

The assessment revealed that the standing building within the study area is probably medieval in origin with an associated later walled garden and is the 'town house of the manor'. Other former buildings associated with this house might still be located within the site. [Au(adp)]
