

South West

SOUTH GLOUCESTERSHIRE

South Gloucestershire

7/171 (H.79.M002)

ST 80708290

GL9 1DB

BADMINTONBadminton, a Geophysical Survey

Martin, M, Martin, J & Jackson, A

South Gloucestershire : Sagascan, 2003, 11pp, colour pls,

figs, tabs, refs

Work undertaken by: Sagascan

A resistivity survey on the Badminton Estate revealed rectilinear features, possible enclosure features and indications of medieval ridge and furrow. [AIP]

Archaeological periods represented: MD, UD

7/172 (H.79.M001)

ST 77207440

SN14 8HU

CASTLE FARMCastle Farm, a Preliminary Geology Survey

Martin, M, Martin, J & Jackson, A

South Gloucestershire : Sagascan, 2003, 10pp, colour pls,

figs

Work undertaken by: Sagascan

The shadowy outline of a rectangular building was coincident with a wall and quern stone exposed when a water pipeline was laid. [Au(adp)]

Archaeological periods represented: UD

7/173 (H.79.M004)

ST 67038827

GL12 8QB

MANOR HOUSE, TYTHERINGTONThe Manor House, Tytherington Topographic Survey and Geophysical Survey

Brooks, I & Laws, K Gwynedd : Engineering Archaeological Services Ltd., 2003, 13pp, figs

Work undertaken by: Engineering Archaeological Services Ltd.

The geophysical survey revealed no clear magnetic anomalies, this could have been related to modern disturbance. [Au(abr)]

7/174 (H.79.M003)

ST 74108560

BS37 6PE

SPRINGFIELD FARMSpringfield Farm a Geophysical Survey

Martin, M, Martin, J & Jackson, A

South Gloucestershire : Sagascan, 2003, 13pp, colour pls,

figs

Work undertaken by: Sagascan

A resistivity survey in 2003 revealed more extensive Roman settlement than heretofore envisaged with evidence of a complex of buildings extending over at least four fields with an area of four hectares. [Au(adp)]

Archaeological periods represented: UD