200-202 High Street, Sutton. London Borough of Sutton. An Archaeological Evaluation Report

Single, A London : Compass Archaeology, 2002, 36pp, colour pls, pls, figs, tabs, refs

Work undertaken by: Compass Archaeology

Although groundworks had already begun it was possible to put three evaluation trenches into the site, two at the rear where the ground had already been cleared, and one in the front within a standing building. Two post holes containing timbers were recorded, a nineteenth century brick wall and drain were observed along with a medieval or post-medieval cut. There was no evidence of prehistoric, Roman, Anglo-Saxon or medieval activity on the site. It was not thought that any further archaeological fieldwork would be desirable.
