St Cuthbert's Church, Marton in Cleveland, Middlesbrough. Report on an Archaeological Watching Brief

Johnson, M York : York Archaeological Trust, 2002, 8pp, figs, refs

Work undertaken by: York Archaeological Trust

A watching brief was undertaken during the hand excavation of a series of drains and a soakaway to the north-west of the eastern parts of the church. The eastern-most of these revealed disturbed materials likely to relate to construction activities carried out in the 1840s and 1957. Burial soils were encountered, however, interments were at a lower level than were reached during the course of the works. [Au(abr)]
